Air Power Alone Won't Win Wars

I recall that in World War II the Germans seized a monastery on a mountain in Italy, hid long-range artillery in the rocky caves, and proceeded to make life miserable for American GIs on the plain below.

Our Air Force grouped for one mighty blow that was expected to wipe out the mountain's cannons. Planes dropped 1,000 tons of bombs on the mountain—but when the bombing was over the Germans resumed artillery fire from their rocky lairs.

World War II offered a similar experience in the Pacific, where planes failed to run the Japanese out of caves on rocky islands—and ground troops finally did the job with flame-throwers.

Air Power is vital, of course, but once more we are learning its limitations—in the Southeast Asia war. You read on this page yesterday an AP dispatch from Saigon admitting that the supply route through the Plain of Jars which had been under constant bombardment by our flyers had finally fallen back into the hands of the enemy's ground troops.

The meaning is clear to all. A great Englishman once said that the beauty of sea power is that you can take as much or as little of a war as you like. But this isn't true of air power—as Americans are now discovering.

It should caution us in making mutual defense treaties in the future. I think we got into the Southeast Asia trouble with the expectation that we could discharge our obligation with air power alone—not requiring the use of our ground forces. But the facts of war are grimly different.

Air power is vital in support of ground troops—but without troops the bombers are made to look pretty futile on the pages of history.

Children Die in House Fire

HUMNOKE, Ark. (AP)—Two children on a Christmas visit with their grandparents died early today in a fire that destroyed a farm home about four miles southeast of this Lonoke County community. Another child was burned critically.

Sheriff Warren Minton identified the dead as Donald Calvin Lewis, 14, and his sister, Donna Catherine Lewis, 12, who the sheriff said were visiting from New Mexico. Burned critically was Lewis Edward Wood, 15, Minton said.

Minton said the three were sleeping in the front bedroom of the home of the Lewis children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus O. Wood. The Woods and a son, Clarence Leon Wood, 26, escaped injury.

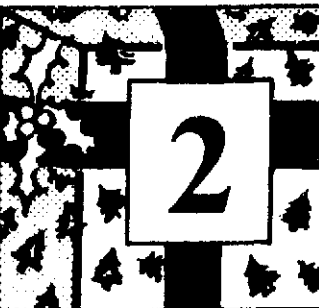

The sheriff said the elderly Wood awoke about 4 a.m. today to find the front part of the frame house in flames.

Minton said the grandparents and Clarence Wood broke a window to the front bedroom and were able to reach in and bring out Lewis Wood, but were unsuccessful in attempts to rescue the other two children.

The sheriff said the cause of the fire was not known. He said the house was destroyed.

Gas Service Is Restored

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A spokesman for Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. said late Tuesday night that gas service had been restored to 98 per cent of the 2,300 customers in East Little Rock who have been without gas since Monday.

East Pakistan a Menace to Stability of Asia

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The dust of the 13-day India-Pakistan war is now settling, and the prospects are far from rosy.

The new nation of Bangladesh can easily, in the course of time, turn out to be a major menace to Asian stability and peace.

A country of 75 million or more, poverty-stricken and loaded with economic, social, military, police and who knows what other problems, it needs help desperately.

Many Americans are willing to help, and perhaps their help may be accepted on a private basis. But dispatches say that leaders of the new regime, as of now, scorn help from the U.S. government because Washington is viewed as having supported the West Pakistani regime in the conflict.

This limits Bangla's options.

India has trouble enough governing and feeding her own 560 million people. The only other direction for Bangla leaders to look is toward Moscow. And this, in turn, would throw Bangladesh into the middle of an Asian cold war in which China is challenging the Russians' claim to predominant influence.

In elections a year ago Sheikh Mujibur Rahman led the Bengalis' Awami League to electoral victory and emerged as the most popular man in East Pakistan. He has been in jail since March in West Pakistan, but the new civilian government says it is transferring him to house arrest. Even if he were able to return, Bangla seems headed for internal struggle because of the many political pressures crushing on it.

On the economic side, the problems boggle the mind. Bangladesh doesn't even have a monetary system of its own as its leaders attempt to build a government. It will need immediate help in that respect, probably from India.

A construction specialist with CARE, the international relief organization, says one of Bangladesh's greatest concerns has to be housing.

Pay Raises Above 7% Are Ruled Out

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — An unexpected action by the five business members of the Pay Board has called into question virtually all scheduled pay raises that exceed 7 per cent a year.

Shortly before midnight EST Tuesday they issued a statement automatically challenging any future raises over 7 per cent in contracts that began before the wage freeze started last Aug. 15.

The statement was issued by Virgil Day, a General Electric Co. vice president, on behalf of himself and the other four business members.

Challenged raises in old contracts can be rolled back if a majority of the 15-member labor-public-business board finds them to be "unreasonably inconsistent" with the board's general guideline that new agreements can't contain raises more than 5.5 per cent a year except in special circumstances.

The business members' move appeared aimed particularly at the construction industry, where scheduled raises for the coming year far exceed the 6.1 per cent average that the Bureau of Labor Statistics says prevails for 1972 raises in all big labor pacts.

The statement challenges "all contracts and pay-practice commitments made prior to Aug. 15, 1971"

No mention is made of whether agreements made during the Aug. 15-Nov. 14 wage freeze will also be challenged.

Previously, new raises in agreements reached before Nov. 14 were subject to automatic Pay Board review only if they cover 1,000 or more persons.

One labor member of the board immediately questioned whether business members could issue such a blanket challenge. He said he thinks contracts must be challenged individually or not at all.

The surprise move by the business members was announced after a marathon session in which the dissent-ridden board put off for a second time a decision on whether to approve 13-per-cent raises in new aerospace labor agreements affecting, directly or indirectly, some 300,000 production workers nationwide.

To Free Political Leader

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — President Zulfikar Ali Bhutto says he will release Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the East Pakistani political leader, from prison but will keep him under house arrest.

Bhutto said the change from imprisonment to house arrest was a step in seeking a political settlement with Pakistan's lost eastern province which became the separate state of Bangladesh as a result of the two-week war between India and Pakistan. India says Mujib's release and return to the East will be key requirements in any peace negotiations.

The new president has pledged to regain the eastern wing of the country and underlined his intentions earlier Tuesday by naming an East Pakistani, Nurul Amin, as his vice president.

Bhutto told newsmen at a reception he will go to Peking before entering talks with India about a postwar settlement. China backed Pakistan in the war.

He also said he would not convene the National Assembly until a settlement with India is reached.

Sheikh Mujib's Awami League won a majority in the assembly elections a year ago, but then President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan nullified its victory when he ordered his troops in East Pakistan to crush the league's independence movement. Sheikh Mujib was arrested March 25.

The new Pakistani vice president is a conservative who opposed both Bhutto's leftist Pakistan People's party and East Pakistani independence. He was one of the two East Pakistanis elected to the assembly who were not from the Awami League; Sheikh Mujib's forces won 167 seats. Bhutto's party won 82 of the 139 seats in West Pakistan.

Bhutto appointed three new civilian state governors in West Pakistan today and retired four military governors, bringing to 10 the number of generals purged since he took office Monday.

Bhutto also announced he will soon give up his title as chief martial law administrator. But he reserved four Cabinet portfolios for himself—defense, foreign affairs, interior and inter-provincial affairs.

Nixon Achieves Major Aims

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has achieved most of his major legislative aims and the two big items in suspense—welfare reform and revenue sharing—will be enacted next year, two of his top spokesmen say.

The prediction came in the course of a review of Nixon's third year in office by Herbert G. Klein, White House chief of communications, and Clark MacGregor, head lobbyist in Congress for administration proposals.

Klein told newsmen the year was one of "bold changes ... whose effect will be felt for 10 years."

Reds Threat to U.S. Air Offensive

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — With little more than 200 aircraft and about 9,000 men, the North Vietnamese air force threatens America's air legions in Indochina with harassment and embarrassment rather than a showdown challenge.

"They don't have the assets to make an all-out air confrontation," says one U.S. officer.

"But they're smart enough to know that if they push us too far, they'll wind up losing their whole damn air force. We can bring so much more to bear on them if they commit themselves to an all-out confrontation."

Another source said that if the North Vietnamese "put too much pressure on, we'll go after the whole shooting match," including the bases for North Vietnam's MIG jets. Half a dozen of these bases are in the Hanoi area; others are farther south at Quang Lang, Vinh and Bai Thuong.

According to the best available estimates, the North Vietnamese have 165 combat planes, all supplied by the Russians.

Hanoi's air force also has about 40 transport planes and a score of helicopters, including two of the Soviet aircraft that can carry 100 passengers each.

The sources said the MIGs "can dart in and out of Laos at will" to harass U.S. planes operating along the border.

"Their pilots are cagey," said one source. "They know the terrain, and they know how to avoid our radar surveillance. They come in low behind the radar mask of the terrain and pop up at you at the last minute. We expect to see more of this."

The sources also estimate that North Vietnam mans 30 launching sites for the surface-to-air missiles—or SAMs—which the Russians supply and perhaps 100 radar defense sites.

There was no estimate available of the number of anti-aircraft artillery batteries, but it was said to be "sizeable."

The air defenses, including planes, shot down four U.S. fighter-bombers last weekend.

Complicated Guidelines on Rent Are Announced

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Price Commission today announced complicated new guidelines on residential rents that chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. estimated would hold average rent increases in 1972 to 3 or 3½ per cent.

The announcement came only hours after business members of the Pay Board issued a blanket challenge of all scheduled pay raises that exceed 7 per cent, casting such future raises in doubt.

The Price Commission's rent guidelines establish no firm lid on rents.

Grayson said at a news conference that individual tenants might experience increases of up to 15 per cent or more, or might actually be entitled to a rollback, depending on circumstances.

Mrs. Rose Wylie, chairman of the National Tenants Organization, criticized the commission's new rent control regulations as "a boondoggle for landlords and a hoax on the tenants of this country."

Mrs. Wylie, the tenant member of the rent advisory board to the commission, said the new regulations, instead of controlling rents, will result in inflationary increases in the coming year far in excess of anything that has been experienced thus far.

She said that the new regulations would enable landlords to raise apartment rents as much as 30 per cent over what they now charge their dwellers.

The commission established one set of criteria for homes and apartments that are rented on a monthly or weekly basis, and another set for those rented through leases longer than one month.

The base rent for monthly or weekly rentals is the rent charged during the Aug. 15-Nov. 14 price freeze. For long-term leases it is the average level of new leases or renewals for similar units signed before the freeze.

When his early solutions weren't working fast or well enough, he suspended the convertibility of dollars into gold, imposed a 10-per-cent surtax on imports and demanded reform of the world monetary system.

According to Klein, MacGregor and the review's authors, the President has achieved many of his goals or has opened negotiations on others, including a revaluation of world currencies, devaluation of the dollar, new trade policies and a turning of the adverse American trade and balance-of-payments positions.

Major gains were claimed for the United States in negotiations for a strategic arms limitation agreement with the Soviet Union and in opening a potentially large Russian market for U.S. agriculture.

The signing of the four-party treaty on Berlin and the treaty to give Okinawa back to Japan were also noted as signaling strong successes for U.S. foreign policy.

Klein would not admit when questioned that the U.S. position in the recent India-Pakistan war was a setback for American diplomacy, although "it is not a plus" anytime fighting breaks out.

He also said there was no failure in U.S. Mideast policy in spite of the inability of the administration to bring about its year-long effort for an interim settlement between the Arabs and Israelis.

There was nothing said concerning Nixon's problems in Laos and Cambodia, nor of U.S. disputes with Chile and Cuba.

And, against the seven paragraphs devoted to China policy, only two were written about feeling.

"I feel great," she told newsmen.

Miss Harbert, who will be 26 next Monday, was freed 10 days ago at the Hong Kong border and arrived here 27 hours later. She had been taken from a yacht off the China coast in 1968 while sailing with a companion from Hong Kong to the Philippines. The friend died in Chinese custody, reportedly killing himself.

"It was terrible," she said of the plight, a capture the Chinese never revealed and which led Miss Harbert's family to believe she had drowned at sea.

Freed on the same day as Miss Harbert, and also brought to the hospital in nearby Phoenixville, was Richard G. Fecteau, 44, Lynn, Mass., held more than 19 years by the Chinese following capture during the Korean War.

Fecteau, being treated for an eye infection and stomach pains, is expected to go home Thursday or Friday for the holidays.

Miss Harbert said that after the holidays and a few weeks readjusting to the changes in the United States, she said she'll start looking for a job.

Deer Hunting Dates Set

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Game and Fish Commission met Tuesday in Little Rock and set the dates for the 1972 deer hunting seasons.

The first season will be Nov. 13-18 and the second season will be Dec. 11-16.

The commissioners also discussed the possibility of another season during the week of Thanksgiving, but no action was taken.

Nixon Points to China Visit, Economic Reform

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House looked back over 1971 today and pointed to its new China policy, the continued winding down of the Vietnam war and the movement toward international economic reforms as its major foreign policy achievements during the year.

In releasing a year-end review on the status of administration policy, White House aide Herbert Klein said 1971 "was a highly significant year, a year that set trends for the next 10 to 15 years, a year of changes bold and strong."

The 30-page position paper naturally stressed what the administration figures to be its strong points. It was described by another presidential aide, Clark MacGregor, as "an honest, put-your-best-foot-forward piece."

There were, however, acknowledgments by MacGregor and Klein in a briefing with reporters that 1971 saw some goals unattained in foreign policy, even some losses.

But by-and-large, the accent was positive.

In Vietnam, the statement said, "The President was carrying out his pledge to end the American involvement in a way that would contribute to a larger and a lasting peace."

"By year's end, he had cut the number of American troops in Vietnam to less than a third of what it was when he took office, while the number of Americans killed in action had been cut from almost 300 per week to less than 10 and he was

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM G. COX

Miss Janice Kay Yates and William Glenn Cox were united in marriage in a candle light ceremony at six o'clock Saturday evening, December 11, in Bethany Baptist Church at Spring Hill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Yates of Hope, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Pauline Cox of Hope, and J. W. Cox of Texarkana.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Jones.

Vows were exchanged before an arch of two seven branched candelabras. Pews were marked with white satin bows. The candles were lighted by Richard McCormack of Hope, cousin of the bride, and Glendon Cox of Patmos, uncle of the groom, who also served as ushers.

Presiding the ceremony Wendel McCormack, pianist, and cousin of the bride presented a program of pre-nuptial music. He accompanied the soloist, Miss Ginger Kay Nations, who sang "More."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bridal white Peau De Sole with re-embroidered appliques and lace. Her chapel length train was trimmed with matching lace. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls given her by her grandmother.

She carried a cascade of white carnations with white tapers. On the way to the altar the bride gave her mother a pink carnation and one to the groom's mother when leaving the altar.

Miss Sandra Kay McCormack of Hope, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She chose a floor length gown of peach Peau De Sole with organza overlay with Empire bodice trimmed with re-embroidered lace and carried a cascade of white carnations with white tapers.

James Cox of Hope, served his brother as best man.

Presiding at the bride's book was Miss Deborah Kay Bowden of Hope.

After a short trip the couple will make their home in Hope, where the groom is employed.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Will the viewing public embrace a television series about "an aging black Los Angeles junk dealer and his 32-year-old son"?

A season or two ago, TV packagers might have been thrown out of network headquarters for suggesting such a series. "All in the Family" changed that. Now the producers of that comedy sensation are offering a new show, "Sanford and Son."

"I think we're going to make it with the new one, too," says Bud Yorkin, executive producer and director of "Sanford and Son." "It will be the only fresh thing to come on television this season."

Yorkin and Norman Lear run Tandem Productions, which packaged "All in the Family" for CBS (Lear still produces and writes the show). They had no easy time selling it. The Madison Avenue reaction: "A series about a bigot—are you kidding?"

ABC first tried a pilot four years ago and turned it down. NBC also let it pass. Finally CBS network chief Robert Wood decided to take a chance on it. After a slow start, "All in the Family" shot to the top of the ratings.

"Recently we had a 70 share in New York City—unbelievable," Yorkin exulted. "That means 70 per cent of the sets were turned to us, and the other stations had to split up the rest. There aren't many specials that get a rating like that."

Suddenly networks and sponsors evidenced the nerve to take a chance on another kind of series besides the widow with a flock of sunny children. Yorkin and Lear were ready for them. They hooked up with producer-writer Aaron Rubin ("The Andy Griffith Show," "Gomer Pyle") for "Sanford and Son."

As with "All in the Family," the new series is based on a show that has been proven on English television. "Steptoe and Son" has been running for seven years in England and remains high up in audience ratings.

"Steptoe" translates very well," said Yorkin. "Poor people live the same way, no matter what country they are in. Also, a basic ingredient in the series is the relationship of

The Blindness of Love

Dear Helen:
My recently widowed brother has more money than sense. About women, he's completely naive. He thinks they're all like his wonderful wife who died last February. And he needs the stability of marriage.

But he found the wrong woman for it!

Here are some of the things I've found out about her:

At 50+, she's gone through three faces already. So naturally she looks 35, but think of the bills for face lifts!

She is completely narcissistic. Her life revolves around health spas, vitamins, full length mirrors, dieting, false eyelashes, and herself. Not that I'm against making the best of what you've got, but she thinks of nothing else. She'd fall apart if anyone guessed her age as over 40.

She is very selfish. Here's an example: She'll spend hundreds of dollars on quack "therapy," fortune tellers, astrologers, etc., but on the very few occasions her daughter brings the grand children to see her, she buys them nothing. And she'll go shopping with her daughter, only to come home with the dress (for herself) that the girl fell in love with but couldn't afford. She's father and son; they can't live with each other, but they can't live without each other. That is universal, too."

The idea of doing a series about poor people is daring; so is the decision to make them black.

"This is not 'Julia,'" Yorkin emphasized. "These are people who have to scrounge for a living—and are proud of it. Aaron Rubin and I have done a lot of research with people in the junk business, and we've found how they survive."

always competed with her daughter, prides herself on having a better figure and fewer lines in her face. The son-in-law won't visit any more, since she made a play for him.

These are only the high spots. But my poor brother can't see them. She is a great actress, where men are concerned. Women aren't so blind.

We're afraid that if she marries him, she'll take all his money, then leave him. Her last husband is very bitter, but he's not about to say so to my brother, as he's hoping to be relieved of alimony when she remarries. What can we do?—SISTER

P.S. They live in another city, so they won't read your answer in our paper.

Dear Sister:

Here are two suggestions:

1. Invite your brother and Mrs. Narcissus to visit you for a week or more, if he can break away from his office. I note by your postmark that you live in a winter resort area, so the invitation should be attractive. If you can't trip this gal up in seven days of close-in living, then maybe she isn't quite as bad as she seems.

2. Get the word around that your brother has had financial reverses—that the recession may do disastrous things to his business...Or perhaps that his money is tied up in trust funds for his children. Anything which undermines his "money" image may start her asking questions that will perhaps give him an idea of what she is really after.

Of course you can tell him all you've learned about the dame, but don't expect a man in love to believe such things—especially from a relative.—H.

Dear Helen:

My husband and I love each other deeply, and we're both very jealous. He's my whole world, so much so that I dislike most women because they're always trying to get your man. We have a baby daughter. And here's my problem: I've been reading articles about how a girl's father shapes her life. She must have his love and encouragement. She entices him, practices her feminine arts safely on him so she'll know how to deal with other males. This sounds awful! Since when does a daughter have to learn love through her father?

I'm afraid when she becomes a teenager, I'll resent her dreadfully, as she'll be competing with me for my husband's love. What if she wears bikinis, or brings her cute girl friends over (God knows what they'll be wearing!). I can't face the possibility of our own daughter living with us when she becomes a "woman."

My husband says I've nothing to worry about. He's very understanding—because, being jealous too, he knows how I feel. But I'm upset and embarrassed, and I can't help brooding about the future.

Please tell me what to do—VERY JEALOUS

Dear Jealous:

I think jealousy makes you abnormally susceptible to "psychological" articles you'd be better off avoiding. Your letter illustrates what I mean when I tell certain worry-prone persons they "read too much!"

Perhaps both you and your husband need outside help in facing your insecurities. A few sessions with a counsellor might show you that there are many kinds of love—and it grows best when shared.—H.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The rigorous demands on the man in the White House were demonstrated forcefully Tuesday during NBC's "A Day in the Presidency." The hour opened an evening rich in excellent programs.

John Chancellor and a camera crew met President Nixon as he emerged briskly from his bedroom en route to a breakfast meeting with congressional leaders. For the next 15 hours—through a stag dinner for Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau—The President moved on a tight schedule. Some of the time he was involved in formal functions as head of state but most of the time he was conferring on subjects ranging from the economy to Israel-Arab relations.

The program, edited out of eight hours of film—the President excluded cameras during confidential talks—showed a Nixon who does not emerge during formal speeches or news conferences.

The President gave firm orders to George Bush, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, in a telephone call about the India-Pakistan crisis that was peaking on the day, Dec. 6, when the program was shot. He complained about "a lousy story" in a newspaper. He managed to get in a few plugs for favored projects, including revenue sharing.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Donna Stevenson to Jack R. Watkins is made known by her mother, Mrs. Virginia Stevenson of Hope and Walter Stevenson of Texas. Mr. Watkins is the son of Mrs. Jewel Dean Watkins and the late Lester N. "Jack" Watkins of Hope.

Miss Stevenson is the granddaughter of Mrs. George Fuller and the late Mr. Fuller. She is a 1969 graduate of Hope High School and a graduate of

Colts Upset Over Reports on Loss

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts are upset about published reports concerning their upset loss to the New England Patriots.

After the Patriots won 21-17 on Sunday, some sources suggested the Colts may have lost because they wanted to meet Cleveland instead of Kansas City in the first round of the National Football League playoffs.

In an official statement issued Tuesday, Baltimore General Manager Don Klosterman said the stories had permitted the integrity of the Colts and of pro football in general to be questioned through innuendo and distortion.

"The idea that the world champions would give less than a full effort in order to gain a supposed advantage in playoff competition is repugnant to everyone associated with the Colts, a team widely known as one of character," Klosterman said.

The loss, the statement pointed out, cost Baltimore a possible home field advantage in the American Football Conference title game and prevented numerous Colts players and coaches from receiving bonus payments which had been promised them contractually if Baltimore had won the Eastern Division title.

Baltimore led the AFC East by one-half game prior to Sunday, but dropped behind Miami when the Dolphins beat Green Bay while the Colts were losing to New England.

As a result, Miami and Kansas City's Western Division winners, each with a 10-3-1 record, will meet in the first round Saturday. The Colts, 10-4, will play Cleveland's Central Division winners, 9-5, on Sunday. Had Miami lost last Sunday, the Colts would have wound up playing the Chiefs anyway.

Had the Colts won the division title and the first game of the playoffs, the AFC championship game on Jan. 2 could have been played in Baltimore if Miami also won its first-round game. Now, the site cannot be Baltimore.

"In general," the statement said, "the Colts suffered many disadvantages as the result of the loss to the Patriots. Coach Don McCafferty summed up the feelings of the Colts when he said: 'I don't want to lose to anybody any time.'"

Noting that Cleveland closed out its season with five straight victories, the statement said, "There is no advantage in playing the Browns and to think otherwise is ludicrous."

"The irresponsible mutterings," the statement said, "do a disservice to the New England team which played a fine game and deserves an untarnished victory over the Colts just as they earned when they defeated teams of the caliber of Miami and Oakland."

"I don't want to lose to anybody any time," the statement said, "is a sentiment shared by all who are associated with the Colts."

The loss, the statement pointed out, cost Baltimore a pos-

Cavaliers Will Enjoy Christmas

By BERT ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Sports Writer

Yes, Virginia, the Cavaliers will enjoy Christmas.

"People are going to ask how we're doing and it's going to be telling them we're 7-0 and ranked 18th in the country," said high-scoring Barry Parkhill after leading Virginia to a 65-56 rout over Richmond Tuesday night in the Roanoke Basketball Classic.

Leading only 28-20 with 5:40 remaining in the first half, the Cavaliers were told by Coach Bill Gibson to forget patience and run. "I wanted them to run," said Gibson.

The Cavaliers ran ... running away from the Spiders by outscoring them 31-3 during one stretch of the second half.

Parkhill finished with 31 points, while Scott McCandless had 19 points and 12 rebounds.

Virginia Military won the second game in the Roanoke Classic, edging Virginia Tech 57-56.

Marquette, the nation's No. 2 team, stretched its home court winning streak to 61, downing Minnesota 55-40 behind Bob Lackey's 22 points.

Minnesota Coach Bill Musselman said the Gophers were intimidated by Marquette's 6-foot-11 Jim Chones.

Long Beach State, rated sixth, whipped UC-Riverside 96-78 behind 6-foot-11 Nate Stephens' 24 points and 20 rebounds. The victory was the 49ers' sixth in seven outings. Sam Cash kept Riverside in contention with 24 points.

Ohio University, ranked 17th, lost its second game in two nights, bowing to Detroit 84-77 in the consolation game of the Michigan Invitational Tournament. Toledo won the title, beating Michigan 88-72.

Louisville, the No. 19 team, rode Jim Price's career high of 22 points to its fourth straight victory after an opening season setback, an 89-70 decision over Alabama.

Lon Haskins gained his 200th victory as coach at Texas-El Paso as the Miners blasted Oklahoma 82-57 for their eighth triumph in nine games this season.

Colorado State knocked Texas Christian, from the unbeaten streak, handing the Horned Frogs their first setback in five games 109-78.

North Carolina State shot 58.6 per cent from the field and whipped Davidson 79-67. Sophomore Andy Rinell's 26 points helped Princeton hold off a late Stanford rally and nip the Indians 88-85.

Bob Ford pumped in 31 points and Bill Franklin added 22, leading Purdue to an 82-82 tie over San Jose State. Rick Williams' 28 points paced Iowa to an 86-77 victory over Nebraska.

Lionel Harris, a second-string transfer from Miami of Florida, broke loose for 29 points as Cincinnati crushed Clemson 93-64. Mike Baskauskas who hit 11 of 12 field goal attempts, and Scott Michel each scored 26 points, pacing Yale to an 85-75 triumph over Wake Forest. Connecticut, behind sophomore Gary Cusick's 22 points and 14 rebounds, defeated Columbia 66-62.

Practice in East-West Shrine Game

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The players in the 47th Shrine East-West football game will begin practice Thursday, if the professional scouts let them.

"The scouts are allowed to measure and weigh them Thursday. They aren't allowed to time them," Francis Powers, public relations director of the all-star game, explained at Tuesday's press luncheon.

Mike Adamle of Northwestern, who played in last year's East-West game and went on to the Kansas City Chiefs, complained in 1970, "The scouts check everything but the dirt under your fingernails." The pro scouts are anxious to see some of the players from smaller schools, like tackle Lionel Antoine of Southern Illinois and center John Hill of Lehigh, playing with the top-flight talent in the East-West game.

Vol Player Would Dispute the Call

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The University of Tennessee football player whose controversial fumble recovery set up the winning touchdown against Arkansas Monday night said he would have disputed the call on the play if he had been a Razorback.

Carl Witherspoon, said, however, that he knew he had at least partial possession of the ball. He called it a "50-50 play."

Arkansas' Tom Reed claimed he recovered the ball. "I couldn't have had it any tighter," he said.

Tennessee went 37 yards after the fumble recovery to score the Vols' second touchdown in their 14-13 Liberty Bowl victory at Memphis.

George Cole, athletic director at Arkansas, said Tuesday the university had not received its film yet of the game. He said the film probably would arrive today and would be reviewed to see what it showed regarding the controversial play.

Film taken by a Little Rock television station did not show a view of the fumble recovery. It also did not show the play involving a holding penalty that wiped out an Arkansas field goal late in the game.

own contributions to Alabama's success, referring to himself as "chairman of the board."

He has become something of a national personality with television audiences because of the worried demeanor and hound's tooth checkered hat he wears on the sidelines. The hat constantly is being snatched by souvenir hunters. Mississippi State holds the hat-stealing record, having grabbed one each of the last five years.

Bryant can afford to replace them. He is preparing to sign a contract with a hat company. He owns a Volkswagen agency in Tuscaloosa, is part owner of a meat-packing company, on the board of directors of an Alabama bank and insurance company, has real estate holdings in Alabama and Texas, does a TV show and endorses a soft drink and potato chips.

A millionaire with nothing else to prove as a coach, Bryant says he has no desire to enter the professional field or to retire on his laurels.

"I get a thrill every time I go to practice," he said.

Bryant has struck oil, so to speak, at every place he has coached. In his 27 years at Maryland, Kentucky, Texas A&M and Alabama, he took run-down, rag-a-muffin teams and turned them into instant winners. He suffered only one losing season. His teams have won 210 games, more than those of any other active coach. The rest of the record is 66 losses and 16 ties.

Coaching associates and players find it difficult to put a finger on the secret of Bryant's success.

It's intangible—there's no way to describe it," says Musso, Alabama's biggest ground-gainer. "He's a great man and you feel it every time you get in his presence."

Bryant, speaking in a slow Southern drawl, soft-sells his

The overtime start, Anderson said, "cannot help but be destructive to such traditions."

Amazing Lakers Run Win Streak to 26 Straight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No team in the modern history of professional sports has won more games in a row than the National Basketball Association's Los Angeles Lakers have hung up this season.

The amazing Lakers ran their NBA record string of victories to 26 Tuesday night with a 117-103 victory over the Buffalo Braves, but it wasn't as easy as the score makes it sound.

Los Angeles had to come from behind after trailing the Braves by as much as 15 points. Jerry West and Wilt Chamberlain combined for 40 second-half points to key the Laker rally.

Elsewhere in the NBA Tuesday night, Chicago blitzed Detroit 127-92. Phoenix defeated Philadelphia 124-119. Houston took Portland 132-119 and New York whipped Golden State 113-87.

The Lakers' 26 victories in a row matches the mark established by baseball's New York Giants in 1916. The team is 32-3 for the season and has not lost since Oct. 31. L.A. was the first team in NBA history to go through an entire month—November—without a loss. Now they're hoping to make it two

Monotonous for Chaparrals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Life for the Dallas Chaparrals of the American Basketball Association is getting monotonous—especially when they play the Utah Stars.

The Chaps took a 106-96 licking from the Stars Tuesday night—Dallas' 15th consecutive loss to Utah.

In other ABA action, Kentucky nipped Pittsburgh 113-111, and Denver whipped Indiana 113-108.

Zelmo Beaty poured in 35 points and Glen Combs added 25-23 in the second half—as the Stars overcame a 12-point third quarter deficit to whip the Chaps. It was the 20th time in their last 21 meetings that Utah has beaten Dallas.

Donnie Freeman led the Chaps with 26 points and went over the 7,000-point mark for his career.

Kentucky overcame a fourth-quarter Pittsburgh rally to whip the Condors. Walt Simon scored four points in the final 1:46 of play as the Colonels strung six straight points to seal the victory.

Dan Issel led the Colonels with 32 points while George Thompson's 27 was tops for the Condors.

Denver's third-quarter rally overcame a 24-point Indiana lead and moved the Rockets past the Pacers.

The First Baptist Kindergarten tea was held in the Fellowship Hall on Friday morning, December 17. Christmas cookies made in class by the children were served with spiced tea and coffee. The table centerpiece was a Christmas tree arranged on a candleabra surrounded by red tapers and decorated with cardinals made and painted by the children.

The parents and guests were entertained by the children in a music program directed by Jim Hart, music and education director for the First Baptist Church, who works three days each week with the kindergarten. Mrs. Henry Haynes, who teaches music to the children two days each week, also led them in several songs.

Gifts from beneath the lovely Christmas tree were then distributed to all twenty-seven children.

Mrs. Ray Lawrence and Mrs. Terrell Martin presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Omer Williams is director, and Mrs. C.R. Moore, associate director, of the kindergarten.

Hagen Thought Jones Was the Greatest

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — The late Walter Hagen, king of the pros in the Golden Twenties when Bob Jones was the amateur emperor of golf, was confronted with a touchy question once during a locker room gab session.

"If you had to put up $10,000 to put on one golfer to win an important match," the Haig was asked, "who would it be?"

Hagen stroked his chin momentarily and replied: "Bob Jones—he has to be the greatest."

Forty-one years have passed since Jones scored the most monumental one-man feat in golf—the Grand Slam, winning the U.S. and British Opens, U.S. and British Amateurs in a single year—and forty-eight hours have passed since Jones was laid to rest in his beloved Atlanta, but golf buffs still debate the question:

"Was Bob Jones the greatest of them all?"

Jones himself scoffed at such comparisons, lauding Ben Hogan, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus as men who came along in the procession of bigger-stronger-better athletic specimens, but he left a record that is staggering.

Over an eight-year span—from 1923 through 1930—he won 13 U.S. and British national championships. In the last nine years of his career, he played in 12 Open championships, nine American and three British, and finished no worse than second in 11 of them.

At 28, still in his prime, he quit competitive golf. At that time, he was eight years younger than Ben Hogan was when Hogan won the first of his four Open Crowns. Jack Nicklaus, at 31, like Jones a Boy Wonder, a standout amateur before he turned professional, has accumulated 11 major crowns. Three of these are Masters, not rated national championships.

Jones' best 72-hole score in the Open was 287 at Interlachen in Minneapolis in 1930. Eleven years later Hogan won the Open at Riviera in Los Angeles with 276, a score subsequently bettered by Nicklaus and Lee Trevino with 275.

Jones, however, played in only a few selected tournaments a year and lacked the challenge of tough year-around competition. Also, he played with wooden-shafted clubs on courses which had not been bartered to foster low scores for crowd appeal.

"Bob Jones was supreme," said Francis Ouimet, the scholarly Bostonian whose 1913 triumph over England's Harry Vardon and Ted Ray is credited with triggering the golfing explosion in the United States.

"I am convinced if Bob had come along 15 or 20 years later he would have rolled out birdies as easily as he did pars."

Charles "Chick" Evans, who played championship golf after he was 60 and who was one of Bobby's keenest rivals, called Jones "the master shotmaker."

"He was at his best when conditions were tough and when one missed stroke cost a tournament—he was incomparable," argued Evans.

O. B. Keeler, the late Atlanta golf historian who became known as Jones' Boswell, attributed the difference in scoring to improved equipment and softened courses.

Chile, Cuba Have Something Going

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Cuba may not be running a subversive network from Chile, as a London newspaper reports, but it's up to something in Santiago.

The Daily Telegraph reported Sunday that a senior Cuban intelligence official had defected to the United States with information that Cuban intelligence experts have formed a "Latin American Liberation Movement" based in Santiago.

Bond Dealers Challenged

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A suit filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court at Little Rock charges that four Little Rock bond dealers conspired to fix the price on $3 million in bonds issued last month by the city of Pine Bluff to finance a convention center.

The suit, filed by Thurman Ragar and Marie A. Ferrara of Pine Bluff, alleged the companies violated the Sherman Antitrust Act and the Clayton Antitrust Act, which regulate trusts and monopolies.

Named as defendants were T. J. Raney & Sons Inc. Stephens Inc., Powell and Satterfield Inc., and W. H. Satterfield.

The suit said that bids were taken Nov. 23 at Public auction for the purchase of the bonds. Raney & Sons and Stephens submitted a joint low bid of 5.4 per cent, the suit said, and Powell and Satterfield and W. H. Satterfield submitted a joint low bid of 5.395 per cent.

The suit said the defendants conspired to submit a bid that denanded a higher interest rate on the bonds than was indicated in their fair market value. It asks the court to award about $1.5 million in damages to the taxpayers of Pine Bluff, and that the court order that the money be used to pay the interest on the bonds, which in effect would mean that the four dealers would be forced to pay themselves the interest on the bonds.

The suit charged the fair market price for the bonds was 4.5 per cent.

The bonds were issued for 30 years and the plaintiffs alleged that by accepting the 5.395 bid, Pine Bluff officials cost taxpayers more than $500,000.

Fair Skies Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair skies are forecast for Arkansas through Thursday.

Highs Tuesday ranged from 48 at Jonesboro to 87 at Texarkana and El Dorado, but northeasterly winds at 10 to 18 miles an hour made temperatures seem cooler.

Highs today should be in the mid south with highs Thursday mostly in the 60s.

Lows tonight will be mostly in the 30s.

Overnight lows include Fayetteville 31, Harrison 32, Jonesboro 37, Pine Bluff 42, El Dorado, Little Rock 40 and Fort Smith 30.

No rainfall was reported in the state during the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. today.

Blacks Advise Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A group of blacks told Gov. Dale Bumpers Tuesday that he needed to improve his communications with the black community.

Artificial Tree Not So Good
MADISON, Wis. (AP) — An artificial Christmas tree may not be as good for the environment as the ecology-minded buyer thinks it is, a forestry researcher reports.

Gordon Cunningham of the University of Wisconsin said few evergreens are cut in forests for season trimmings, and that most come from tree farms designed to meet the holiday demands.

Artificial trees, he said, often add to waste disposal problems while genuine evergreens have built-in recycling qualities.

the movement's use of Chile as a base of operations has been approved by Marxist President Salvador Allende. The U.S. State Department confirmed that the Cuban defector is in the United States but refused to give more information.

Chilean officials first flatly denied the report, and Undersecretary Daniel Vegara of the Interior Ministry called it "fantastic, incredible and absolutely false." But later the Foreign Ministry issued a statement which said in part: "The government rejects any insinuation that the president of the republic had or has knowledge of and much less has authorized such foreign activities"

With 48 employees, 39 of them Cuban nationals, Cuba has the biggest Latin American embassy in Chile. Brazil, the largest Latin American nation, has 15 employees in its embassy.

Most of the Cubans are considered to be intelligence specialists.

The ambassador, Mario Inchaustegui, was asked to leave Uruguay in 1961 because Uruguayan officials claimed he helped organize strikes against the government.

Luis Fernandez Ona, the No. 2 man in the embassy, also has intelligence connections and his wife is one of President Allende's three daughters.

The Cubans also have links with a Chilean extremist organization, the Revolutionary Left Movement, or MIR, which has ties with extremists who have left other countries and taken refuge in Chile. During Prime Minister Fidel Castro's visit to Chile last month, MIR members helped Cuban security agents.

The Cubans also have a convenient pipeline from Havana to the rest of Latin America via the two flights a month Cubana Airlines makes to Chile. Cubana's Havana-Mexico City run was formerly the only direct air link between Cuba and Latin America, but Mexican security agents photograph and dossier all persons taking the plane to Cuba.

Killed Trying to See Santa

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — While three of his children stood in line to see Santa Claus at a downtown department store, John Fitzpatrick, 35, was stabbed to death by a man trying to push ahead in the line, police said.

After the stabbing on the 10th floor of the Higbee Co., police said, about 75 persons stood by for five minutes as the assailant, wielding an 8-inch knife, screamed, "I'm not leaving!" He escaped into the crowd when firemen arrived.

Witnesses told police that the man who stabbed Fitzpatrick pushed ahead of others in the line. They said that when Fitzpatrick told him to wait his turn, the man started cursing, wrestled Fitzpatrick to the floor and stabbed him five times.

Fitzpatrick's wife was in another area with the couple's other child, waiting for the four to make their way through the line.

"The Store That Has Time For You"

Dollar Weakens Some

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — America's devalued dollar weakened slightly in European foreign exchanges today but in Tokyo the dollar closed just below its ceiling level with the Japanese yen.

Dealers said that volume was light with no sign of a start of any move out of European currencies and into dollars. West Germany cuts its prime lending rate from 4.5 to 4 per cent in a move to spur the outflow of huge dollar reserves.

There was no sign of a weakening of European lending rates, showing that speculators were still holding on to the billions of Eurodollars they had borrowed in recent months.

Austria and South Africa set new parity rates with the dollar for their currencies. The Austrian national Bank set the dollar's value at 23.30 schillings with a 2 1/2 per cent margin above and below within which the shilling will be allowed to fluctuate. The rate since May had been 24.75 schillings for one dollar.

South Africa made its rate equal to $1.32, seven cents less than the previous rate. The South African government Tuesday announced a 12.25 per cent devaluation of the rand's gold value.

In the Soviet Union, banks continued to charge an 8 per cent commission on each dollar advanced, pending official announcement of a new dollar-convertible parity. This amounted to an effective 8 per cent increase in the ruble's value.

The ruble's present $1.11 value, however, is purely fictitious. Soviet money is not convertible. Where it can be treated freely, as in Zurich, it is worth about 20 cents.

The bank of Portugal also announced a new rate of 27.25 escudos to the dollar, compared to the old rate of 28.55 escudos.

Wants U.S. to Drop Test Ban Inspection

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — An organization of scientists urged the United States today to drop its insistence on an on-site inspection provision in any U.S.-Soviet treaty banning underground nuclear testing.

The Federation of American Scientists, in a statement endorsed by a special committee including a former White House science adviser, said the risks of a treaty without an on-site inspection provision "are minimal, and the gains could be very substantial."

"Given recent improvements in seismology and other means of detection," the statement said, "we believe that the United States would detect Soviet violation of a test ban treaty long before the Soviets could carry out enough tests to score a breakthrough that would threaten the stability of the nuclear balance."

The statement charged that insistence on the ban "springs from the desire to continue American nuclear testing in order to develop new weapons, to resist existing weapons and to keep our (nuclear) laboratories vigorous."

The 2,300-member FAS claims to be "virtually the only lobbying arm of science" in the United States.

The Soviet Union maintains inspection can be monitored by remote-control devices, while the United States long has said on-site inspection is necessary to enforce any treaty.

HAROLD FOSTER

Kiwanian Larry Patterson presented Harold Foster, County Supervisor of Farmer's Home Administration, as the guest speaker at Tuesday's meeting of Hope Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Foster outlined something of the history of the agency with which he is connected, stating that Farmer's Home Administration operates under the Agriculture Department and is funded by the Federal Government.

The Farmer's Home Administration is not a primary lending institution, if credit is available elsewhere, but is a supplement to other credit agencies. If and when a family which has secured funds through the FHA gets to the place they will be accepted by a regular lending institution, they are "graduated" from FHA. In Hempstead County in 1971 seven family groups have graduated to other lending institutions.

There are actually three divisions or service branches under which FHA operates, the Farm Service Branch; the Community Service Branch; and the Rural Housing Branch; with an Emergency Service Branch assisting the three divisions as necessity demands.

In the Rural Housing Branch, and this includes incorporated towns of 10,000 or less population, one task is to fit the house to the family size to the income of the family in considering a loan. In Hempstead County in a six months period of 1971 fifty six families have committed themselves to loans totaling $711,250 through the Farmer's Home Administration. This means that fifty six new dwellings will be put on the tax list; sales tax will have been paid on materials for fifty six houses built; income tax will be paid on the labor of construction crews for fifty six dwellings; as well as other benefits that will accrue to the county and to the individuals involved.

Jack Lowe, Chairman of the Membership Development Committee of Hope Kiwanis Club formally inducted four new members into the Hope Club. The new inductees are Bryon Cunningham, Kenneth Powell, Thomas E. Jackson, and Carl Hamilton. On invitation of the club Mrs. Hamilton accompanied her husband for his induction. The other wives, having previous commitments, were unable to attend.

Most of Money From Holdup Still Missing

TORONTO (AP) — With five persons already in custody, metropolitan police searched for more suspects today and for about $950,000 still missing from last Saturday's holdup of the Royal Bank of Canada in Windsor.

Police at first believed that a steamer trunk recovered in a raid on a hotel room in Toronto Monday night held more than $1 million of the loot, but when the money was counted it totaled $148,000. Two men and a 56-year-old grandmother were arrested and charged with possession of stolen money.

"It's certainly the highest cash recovery we've ever made, but it's still far short," said Supt. Adolphus Payne.

Another $11,000 was recovered when police raided an apartment in the Toronto suburb of Mississauga and arrested two women on charges of possessing stolen goods.

Police Chief Gordon Preston of Windsor said two men are being sought in the Toronto area and at least two others in Windsor.

He said there was evidence that the four men who committed the holdup stayed in Windsor the night before and police are looking for persons who may have sheltered them.

The bandits dressed as janitors and carrying pails, entered the bank, possibly with their own key. They handcuffed 12 employees together in a washroom, scooped the money into three canvas bags and, encountering the manager on their way out, handcuffed him to a teller's cage. The whole operation took 12 minutes.

Penal Farm Issues Raised

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — District Court Judge G. Thomas Eisele said Tuesday that only two major constitutional issues apparently need to be resolved concerning operation of the Mississippi County Penal Farm.

Eisele said the questions that had not been resolved whether it was unconstitutional to work misdemeanants at the farm without paying minimum wage and whether Mississippi County could contract with other counties and municipalities for use of the farm. The questions were raised by Oscar Endler of Blytheville, attorney for the inmate plaintiffs who have charged in a suit that conditions at the farm are unconstitutional.

Graham Sudbury, attorney for the county, said that if the county could not contract to accept misdemeanants from other counties the farm economically and would have to shut down.

First Day of Winter Brings Sun Closer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is the first day of winter when the daylight hours begin to get longer and the sun is closer to the earth than on any other day of the year.

Climatologists call it the beginning of the astronomical season—or winter solstice—but advise that the truly wintry weather will not follow for several weeks.

"In some ways it's paradoxical," says a spokesman for the National Weather Service in Chicago.

He explains that during the winter season, known for its coldness, the sun actually comes 2 million miles closer to the earth than in the summer months.

The beginning of the astronomical winter marks the day when the sun has the lowest noon elevation over all areas of the northern hemisphere.

The winter solstice does not always hit on Dec. 22, but varies slightly because of leap years and because the solar year is not exactly 365 days long.

Next year it will be on Dec. 21 and that date will mark the start of winter for all but three of the next 14 years. The three exceptions mark the day at Dec. 22.

Loan Folks Irked by Suggestions

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The savings and loan people are getting a bit irritated by suggestions from the administration, economists and retailers that business conditions might improve if people saved less and spent more.

Behind those suggestions is the assumption that if the consumer reduces his rate of savings he will pump billions of dollars into the economy. Instead, the savings rate remains close to 8 per cent.

That percentage, which relates to the amount of take-home pay—after taxes, that is—is unusually high. In 1960, for example, it was less than 5 per cent, and as recently as 1969 it was at a more "normal" 6 per cent.

If that rate comes down, business goes up, some people assume. And that is what bothers the U.S. Savings and Loan League. It contends that such thinking is too simplistic.

"There's been so much concern in recent months about the need from more consumer spending—and less saving—that it's easy to believe that money in savings accounts simply is locked in vaults, where it does no good," the league comments.

"The fact that the money you put in your savings account does as much for the economy as money spent directly for consumer goods and services." Savings and loan associations, it reminds us, fuel the housing boom as well as assist in commercial and industrial developments, churches, shopping centers, urban renewal projects and hotels.

One corollary to the rise in savings during 1971 was a tendency of households to redeem their mutual fund shares, and some of that money seems to have gone into savings accounts.

It may be difficult to prove this contention, but it does seem reasonable that in times of economic uncertainty, such as in 1971, small investors would look for safety rather than equity—and almost nothing is safer than the bank.

Nevertheless, the Investment Company Institute, which represents most of the large mutual funds, feels that the relative disfavor into which their product has fallen is temporary.

"Next year," it says, "it is estimated that the rate of savings will decline somewhat, and the composition of savings will change."

"In 1972, for example, the net increase in savings deposits is forecast to rise more slowly than this year, while new money flows into mutual funds undoubtedly will be significantly larger."

Pleads No Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Joseph R. Spear of Fort Worth, Tex., a former employee of General Dynamics Corp., pleaded nolo contendere Tuesday in U.S. District Court here to a charge of conspiring to defraud the government by concealing defects in parts made for the F111 fighter-bomber.

Spear, one of seven men indicted in the case, previously had pleaded innocent. He changed his plea Tuesday.

Nolo contendere means that while the defendant neither admits nor denies guilt, he is willing to be sentenced.

Judge J. Smith Henley told Spear the plea would be treated the same as a plea of guilty. He postponed sentencing until late January or early February.

Hippies Suffer Fewer Problems With Noise

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: Science has found that hippies with long curly hair have one advantage over their bald critics—they suffer fewer noise problems. Their curls soften the din of many annoying sounds, such as jet planes, garbage trucks, sirens and telephones.

You have eyelids—but a snake doesn't. This is no particular handicap to it, however. Its eyes are covered by hard, transparent, plastic-like caps so it can burrow into the ground without damage to its vision.

Warning to the ladies: If you don't get kissed under a mistletoe bough by Christmas, you'll remain unwed all through the upcoming Leap Year. Legend says that the boy who kisses you should pluck and give to you a berry from the mistletoe. The mistletoe loses its magic when all its berries are gone.

Like the United States, the Soviet Union is engaged in a massive campaign to control spreading venereal disease, but the Soviets are going about it in a tougher manner. There, a person who knowingly infects another is subject to a possible prison sentence of up to three years.

Feeling a bit older? So are a lot of other people. As a matter of fact, by 1980 it is estimated that the U.S. population will include 33 million people over the age of 60.

Snowy peril: Skiing is becoming ever more popular, but it has its penalties for the awkward beginner or the careless expert. Each year some 100,000 skiers are injured, of whom 50,000 suffer fractures. They sure do get the breaks.

S. Vietnam to Free 689 Prisoners

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government announced today that it will release 689 political prisoners arrested in the CIA's Phoenix program.

Government spokesman Vu Khanh said the prisoners would be freed on Christmas Day at various points throughout South Vietnam. He said none of them had been brought to trial, and the longest any had been held was six months.

"They were imprisoned because they were suspected enemy sympathizers or helpers," said Khanh.

Official sources reported two weeks ago that the government planned to release scores of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong prisoners of war on either Christmas, New Year's or the Tet Celebration of the lunar new year in February. But there has been no further word on this.

The U.S. Central Intelligence Agency launched the controversial Phoenix program late in 1967 in an attempt to neutralize the Viet Cong underground by assassinating its members, capturing them or persuading them to defect to the government.

In the air war, the U.S. Command announced that U.S. F105 fighter-bombers destroyed one radar station in North Vietnam Tuesday and attacked another with unknown results. This raised to 100 the number of American attacks inside North Vietnam this year.

The command said the attacks were made six and 13 miles from the Laotian border and 158 to 165 miles southwest of Hanoi. It was along that part of the border that U.S. planes tangled with North Vietnamese MIGs during the weekend with the subsequent loss of four American planes to the MIGs and to ground fire.

Conway Turns Down Bonds

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Conway voters Tuesday rejected a proposal to issue general obligation and improvement bonds not to exceed $325,000 for the construction of a municipal swimming pool and other facilities at Laurel Park. The vote was 444-527.

Under the proposal, approximately $102,000 in municipal building and airport bonds issued in 1964 would be refinanced. That money would be matched by federal funds for construction of the facilities.

If approved, the proposal would have extended a present 2-mill tax and added an additional 1-mill tax. The bonds would have been retired in about 30 years.

Wants Suit Dismissed

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — A motion for dismissal "with prejudice" of a suit against three law enforcement officers was filed by the attorney for Floyd Morgan of Harrisburg, who had claimed in his suit that his son, Merle, in his 30s, died as a result of actions by Poinsett County Sheriff Ray Holmes, Deputy Johnnie Henderson and State Trooper Joe Martz. The officers had denied any unlawful activities in the handling of Morgan.

Dismissal with prejudice means the cause of action cannot be brought again.

Morgan was arrested in 1969 for public intoxication and other charges. He died about 14 hours later at the Poinsett County Jail. An autopsy by Dr. Rodney Carleton, state medical examiner, showed Morgan died of a blow to the head several hours before he was arrested. A grand jury investigated the complaint against the policemen but returned no indictment.

Trawler Hijacking Cloaked in Secrecy

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Official silence cloaked most of the details today in the hijacking of a shrimp trawler which left two men dead and a woman gravely wounded.

The two were slain before dawn Tuesday after going aboard with a woman and three children and forcing its captain, Ray Penland, to put to sea. They were quoted as saying they wanted to go to Campeche, Mexico.

Only Penland and crewman Ton Walkup were aboard as the hijackers quietly seized control of the craft during the weekend, Penland said.

The captain and bodies of the two men were brought ashore here Tuesday night. A Coast Guard cutter, delayed by fog, towed the shrimp to neighboring Port Isabel, at the south tip of Texas.

Penland told newsmen about his trawler being commandeered by two men with shotguns. Sometime after heading into the Gulf of Mexico, he said, one of the hijackers slept and "I hit him over the head with a pipe," Penland said.

At that point, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents interrupted and ordered him to disclose nothing more.

One test of a good partnership is the willingness to let the other play the dummy. The bidding in the box shows one of those good partnerships at work.

We know many players who would never bid anything but no-trump with the South hand and even more who would insist on hearts with the North cards. Now look at how Edgar Kaplan and Norman Kay one of our great partnerships bid smoothly to the right contract.

Norman sitting South bid two diamonds after the spade overcall and Edgar made the obvious two-heart rebid. Then Norman bid two no-trump and Edgar made the very fine call of three diamonds.

This clearly showed that Edgar had a good heart suit and the three-card diamond support.

Norman's three heart bid told Edgar that there was heart support for him. Most players would cheerfully go right to four hearts. Not

Hypoglycemia Tied To Acid Stomach

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Although hypoglycemia, or low blood sugar, can be caused by a tumor of the insulin producing cells or various disorders of the glands or liver the most common symptoms related to low blood sugar are on an entirely different basis. The common variety of "functional hypoglycemia" is often associated with acid stomach, and unwise eating habits.

Underlying this entire mechanism is the normal response of the body to an increased level of glucose sugar in the blood. As the glucose rises the pancreas starts pouring out more insulin, the insulin is to help clear the blood by facilitating the storage of blood sugar as fat or storage of carbohydrates in the muscles. This is the normal action of insulin.

The problem is that if the rise in blood sugar is too high the body may overdo the production of insulin and as it clears the blood of excess sugar it does too good a job, causing hypoglycemia. We call this reaction to a high blood sugar a "rebound reaction."

As the blood sugar falls the familiar sensations of fast heart, nervousness, sweating and even mental confusion results. These are the results of the outpouring of adrenalin.

The overproduction of insulin also affects the stomach. It causes the stomach to form more acid, creating hunger and symptoms of acidity. The person with these problems soon learns that the symptoms can be relieved by eating, and usually he eats something sweet.

Curiously enough, the stimulation of the vagus nerve that stimulates the stomach to form acid-pepsin juice also stimulates the body to produce insulin. Thus the person with hyperacidity problems often has overproduction of insulin as an added feature of his illness.

Treatment of the hyperacidity condition, with medicines that block the vagus nerve (and cause dry mouth) also blocks the stimulation to form excess amounts of insulin, thus relieving both the problems of acidity and hypoglycemia. Inhibiting the formation of excess acid-pepsin juice and excess insulin eliminates the factors that cause hunger and overeating. The reverse is also true, if excess production of insulin can be prevented it will relieve symptoms of trump game.

Norman passed and proceeded to make just three no-trump when West was unkind enough to hold back his heart king when the queen was led. The defense might have slipped and let Edgar make four hearts but the no-trump contract was unbeatable.

acidity.

Hypoglycemia can cause even more severe symptoms than those induced from the pouring out of adrenalin. The function of the brain cells is dependent upon an adequate level of blood glucose. When the level is too low, there is mental confusion. Insulin shock was once a common treatment in patients with psychiatric problems. At very low levels of blood glucose the patient can even have convulsions.
